

The Australasian Academy of Dental Sleep Medicine (AADSM) is proud to present

THE AIRWAY CONFERENCE

FOR DENTAL PROFESSIONALS

RECOGNISING, DIAGNOSING, AND TREATING AIRWAY ISSUES IN ADULTS AND CHILDREN

17th and 18th November 2018

Join other healthcare practitioners in Sydney for a weekend devoted to basic and expanded knowledge of airway/sleep issues and beyond. More than 50% of your patients have an airway issue. How many can you recognize and offer treatment? Learn what you do now.

An esteemed group of professionals, with diverse specialities, will present information on the latest in diagnosis, treatment and research. Learn about sleep medicine, facial growth, nutrition, myofunctional therapy, athletic performance, posture, snoring, sleep apnoea and more.

The training is suitable for dentists, and orthodontists, who are new to dental sleep medicine as well as those who already have experience and want to take their practice to the next level. This course is also recommended for key staff members who have an important role to play educating patients, answering questions and making appointments. Also, suitable to speech pathologists, oral myologists, Dental hygienists, and Oral health therapists.
